In the Trenches Training for Suppliers

A Strategic Blueprint to Getting Meeting Planner's Business in 2008 and Beyond

Presented by:

Cathy Clifton, CMP, CMM and Mary E. Young, CMP
Co-Founders, Meeting Planning Boot Camp™

Program Highlights:

How & Why Meeting Planners put an RFP together

The starting steps planners take to create a detailed RFP and why they want you to read it. We'll cover how you can gather the information if they're not giving it to you in an organized format.

Avoiding the Round File: How to Answer A Request for Proposal (RFP)

Key information will be given to help get your proposals to the top of the pile. You'll learn how much information to provide; how to organize & present, what to leave out and why timing is important.

How to Conduct a Site Visit that will Book the Business

See a site visit from the planner's point of view and how to maximize your time and efforts to show your facility. Learn how the top performers book business on sites.

Etiquette and Working with Meeting Planners

You'll learn how to discover the best way to communicate with planners and why certain methods are more effective.

Comprehensive handouts including sample RFP's will be provided. The class is 4 hours in length and can be run from 8 am - 12 noon or 1 pm - 5pm. We can also customize any of the above to fit your membership.
